Will do this month I'm thinkinng

5:05 PM me: right on. As I mentioned, not a lot of money in it, it's just convenient as something you can cross-post your blog posts to for additional exposure and a few bucks here and there

5:06 PM Erik: cool me: oh, also let me know if you have any interest in writing about science

5:07 PM Erik: sure what for?
me: we're pairing up freelancers with scientists in order to encourage better science articles for use in newspapers and whatnot Erik: I'm pretty burned out on politics these days so...

5:08 PM me: I'll provide more details in my next Skeptical Inquirer column, will send you a link to that and to an archive of the discussion w're having on how to best go about this Erik: sounds good

5:09 PM I'll catch you later - gotta run
